

Northern Long-eared Bat

Counties with documented winter hibernacula and summer maternity roosts as of April 1, 2022

The above map is appropriate for general planning and assessment purposes only and should not be used for screening or reviewing a proposed project for potential impacts to the NLEB. Please request an Endangered Resources \(ER\) Review if you need information about whether a proposed project may impact rare species or other sensitive resources.